Expectations

1. You are expected to be in class on time everyday.
2. Be prepared with your Chromebook and writing utensil everyday.
3. During class discussions, you are expected to participate in a positive manner.
4. Treat everyone in the class with respect, including you.
5. Use of appropriate terminology is expected. If you do not feel comfortable asking a question in class, you may speak to me in private.
6. It is inappropriate to call out without raising your hand or to verbally put down another classmate.
7. You will be expected to behave appropriately in every class each day. Disrupting class, physical contact, foul language, disrespecting the teacher or other classmates will not be tolerated.
8. Cell phones (unless instructed) gum/food/drinks are NOT allowed in class.
9. You are expected to complete your own work. Cheating is a very serious offense.
10. THE MOST IMPORTANT RULE IS TO HAVE FUN! You are going to learn a lot of new information, talk about new topics, and learn more about one another!

Consequences for not conducting yourself appropriately will result in a reduction in grade, parent phone call, detention, and/or removal from class.

It is your responsibility to make up all missed work. See me whenever you have been absent about the work you may have missed. You may also check with a classmate regarding missed notes.
