

Letter formation, directionality and placement are taught through a visual, auditory, kinesthetic, and tactile process.

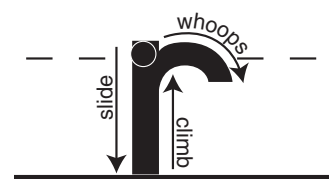

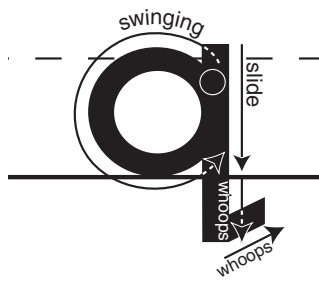

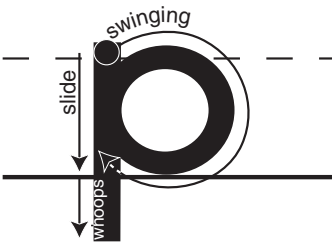

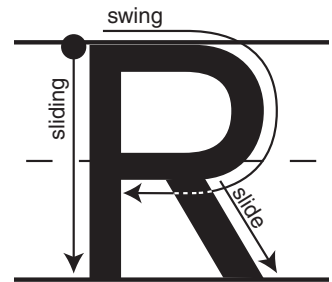

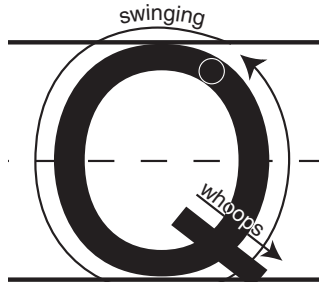

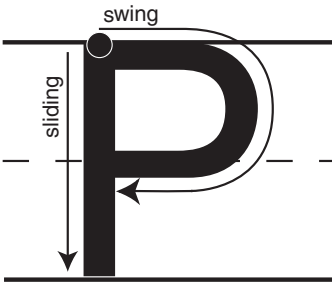

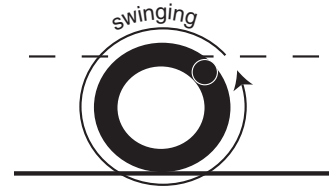

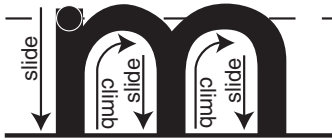

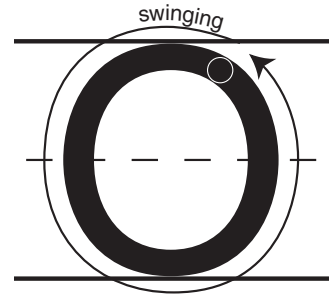

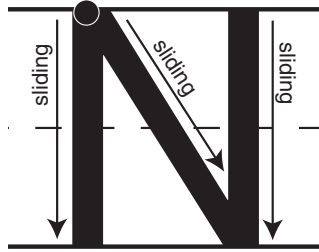

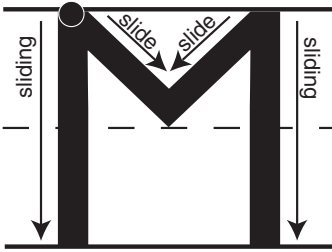

Process:

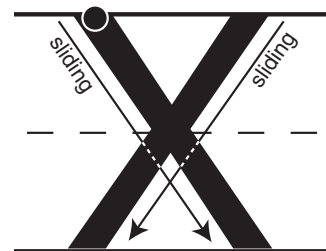

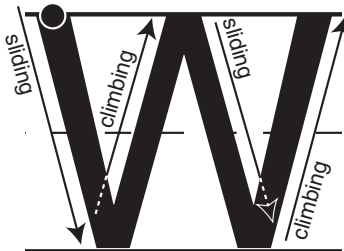

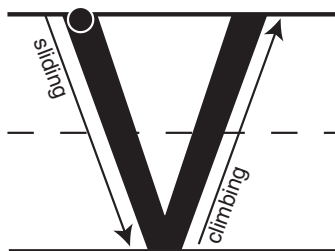

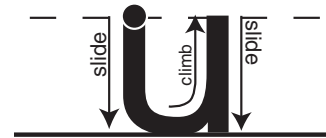

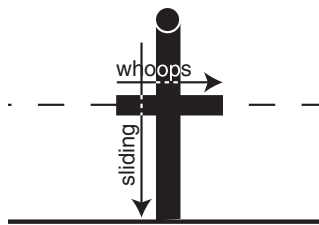

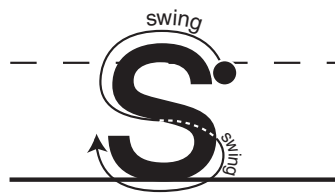

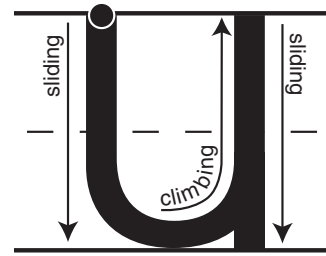

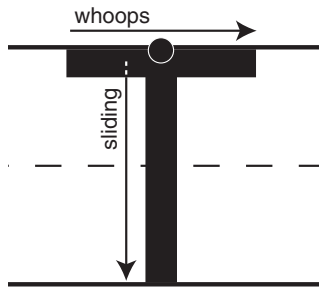

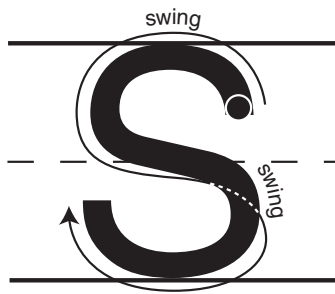

1. Student places index finger of the writing hand on the starting dot.
- *2. Student follows the arrow while saying the movement out loud in a sing-song voice.

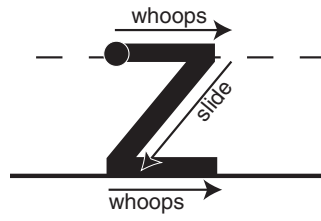

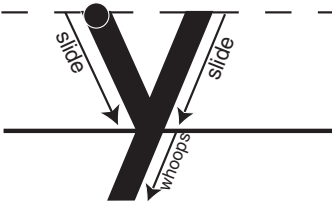

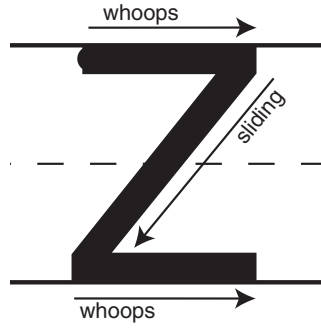

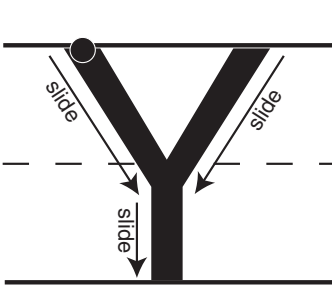

*Movement	Model	Saying
1. Half Circle (open circle)		“swing”
2. Full Circle (closed circle)		“swinging”
3. Vertical or slanted line from dotted line to bottom line		“slide”
4. Vertical or slanted line from the top solid line through the dotted line to the bottom solid line		“sliding”
5. Pulling up from the bottom solid line to the middle dotted line		“climb”
6. Pulling up from the solid bottom line through the middle dotted line to the top solid line		“climbing”
7. Any stroke that is not circular , vertical , or that falls below the bottom solid line		“whoops”
